Background Information

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Poland's history has greatly affected the development of its records of genealogical value. Therefore, understanding that history is very helpful when searching records for your Polish ancestors.

In medieval times Poland became one of the most powerful states in Europe. Its union with Lithuania in 1386 made Poland the third largest nation in Europe. Poland reached its largest expansion in 1569. At that time its borders encompassed 380,000 square miles with a population of fifteen million.

From 1577 to 1772 Poland was an electoral commonwealth, in which the king was elected by the nobility. Weak elected kings and a too powerful noble class weakened the country. Wars were fought with Russia, Turkey, and Sweden primarily over the interests of foreign kings elected to the Polish throne. Poland's borders drew in as territory was ceded to neighboring states. By 1772 the total area of Poland had dwindled to 283,000 square miles with a population of eleven million.

Between 1772 and 1795, the country suffered three partitions that ultimately removed it from the map. In the first partition, Russia, Austria, and Prussia took from Poland one-third of its territory, the major portion going to Russia. In the second partition, in 1793, Russia obtained one-half of the remaining territory of Poland, while Prussia claimed for itself the province of Poznań with more than one million inhabitants. Polish resistance was overwhelmed, and the third partition took place in 1795. The last of the Polish spoils were divided among Russia, Austria, and Prussia. The state of Poland ceased to exist.

Napoleon took Warsaw from Prussia in 1806. In 1807 the Duchy of Warsaw was established as a French protectorate, fashioned out of territory Prussia had seized from Poland in the partitions. With the addition of Polish territory wrested from Austria in 1809, the name was changed to the Grand Duchy of Warsaw. As a result of Napoleon's disastrous Moscow campaign, the Duchy of Warsaw was occupied by Russians early in 1813. The duchy only lasted six years, but left behind a legacy of progressive social and economic reforms, including the beginning of civil registration.

The Congress of Vienna in 1815 redistributed the partitioned territory. Most of the duchy was given to Russia. This area was called the Kingdom of Poland or Congress Poland, with the tsar as king. Prussia received the provinces of Poznań and West Prussia, and Austria took Galicia.

Following World War I, Poland reappeared and proclaimed its independence in November 1918. At the close of World War II, Poland ceded its eastern territories to the Soviet Union, and its western borders were moved west to the Oder and Neisse rivers (see maps on pp. 3–5).

Poland now consists of 125,000 square miles and thirty-six million inhabitants.

Because of Poland's history there are numerous languages to be encountered in Polish records. The major languages are Polish, Latin, German, and Russian. Other significant languages include Yiddish, Ukrainian, Belorussian, and Old Church Slavonic.

TRACING IMMIGRANT ANCESTORS

Vital records in Poland were kept locally. Since they are the major source for genealogical research, it is essential that you determine the locality from which your Polish ancestor came. You can often determine the locality from family sources: grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, or family friends; letters, family Bibles, prayer books, photos, obituaries, or other old documents. Death certificates, marriage certificates, insurance, and social security documents may also yield this information. Passenger lists, discussed in this paper, are also often helpful in determining the ancestor's place of origin.

PLACE-NAMES AND JURISDICTIONS

It is essential in genealogical research that you properly identify localities. This is especially true for research in Poland, where many localities may have the same place-name. There are, for example, over 150 places called Górki. Each one, however, can be uniquely identified by the county, district, or township jurisdiction. Because most vital records were kept by a church or synagogue, it is also important to determine the ecclesiastical jurisdiction. Gazetteers help in locating specific localities and in identifying the civil and ecclesiastical jurisdictions (see the appendix for a list of gazetteers).

AVAILABILITY OF THE SOURCES

Many of the sources discussed in this paper are available at the Genealogical Library of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah, and through its branch genealogical libraries.

The library presently has two catalogs:

1. The dictionary card catalog (DCC). Until January 1979 newly acquired material was cataloged on cards and added to the DCC. The microfilm card catalog (MCC) is a microfilm copy of the dictionary card catalog and is available at branch genealogical libraries. The Polish section, however, was filmed in 1974; many materials were cataloged and put in the dictionary card catalog after that time.

2. The Genealogical Library catalog (GLC). Since January 1979 all newly acquired material has been cataloged in this computerized catalog system. It is periodically printed on microfiche and is available in Salt Lake City and at branch libraries. Gradually all entries in the dictionary card catalog will be converted to the new system and will appear in the microfiche GLC.

During the period 1974–79 many Polish materials were acquired by the library. Until references to these materials are converted to the computer system they can be located only by checking the dictionary card catalog in Salt Lake City or by sending in a Reference Questionnaire (PFGS0131) to inquire after additional material.

Because of lack of storage space, many Polish microfilms are not actually in the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City but must be specially ordered from the library's storage vaults. This often takes up to several weeks. Visitors to the Genealogical Library should write to the library at least a month before their visit to order specific films.

Many Polish sources are not microfilmed and are available only in archives and parish offices in Poland and Germany. In some instances these sources may be accessible by correspondence. Addresses of some of these archives are included in this paper on page 9.

GAZETTEERS

A gazetteer is a geographical dictionary. Gazetteers are essential for finding and properly identifying localities in Poland. By indicating civil and ecclesiastical jurisdictions, gazetteers are helpful in locating where records were kept. (For a description of the major gazetteers for Poland, see the appendix.)

PASSENGER LISTS

Passenger lists are an excellent source of migration data. They provide dates of departure from Europe or arrival in the United States and often indicate the passenger's place of origin. There are two types of passenger lists: U.S. arrivals and European departures.

U.S. Arrivals (1800 to Present)

Most immigrants from the area of Poland arrived at New York, but other U.S. ports were also important. Arrival lists give names of passengers, their ages, occupations, and countries or provinces of origin. Until 1893 few arrival lists indicate specific places of origin; from the late 1890s on, many lists do. Lists are kept at the National Archives of the United States, and microfilms are available through the regional federal records centers. Many lists are available on microfilm at the Genealogical Library.

European Departures (1850 to Present)

The major ports of departure for emigrants from the area of Poland were Bremen and Hamburg. Bremen lists have not been preserved. The Hamburg passenger lists give names of passengers, their ages, occupations, and specific places of origin. The Hamburg lists have been preserved at the State Archives in Hamburg. Microfilmed lists from 1850 to 1934 are available at the Genealogical Library (see The Hamburg Passenger Lists, Genealogical Research Papers, series C, no. 30 [Salt Lake City: Genealogical Department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1976]; microfiche no. 6,000,034).

VITAL RECORDS

Vital records are the major source of genealogical information in Poland. There are two major types of vital records: (1) church registers of christenings, marriages, and burials maintained for ecclesiastical uses; and (2) civil registers of births, marriages, and deaths maintained by the state government. Civil registers often include civil transcripts (copies) of data recorded in church registers.

Church Registers

Church registers were kept from a much earlier date than civil registers. Record-keeping practices vary by religion and are detailed below.

Roman Catholic

The Roman Catholic faith was accepted in Poland in A.D. 966. The Council of Trent in 1563 issued the first mandate that Roman Catholic parishes keep records of christenings and marriages. A later directive, in 1614, required the keeping of death records. The Polish church quickly conformed to these requirements. Records were kept in Latin and in Polish.

Time periods covered: Polish Catholic registers may date from as early as the late sixteenth century. Unfortunately, many of the very early records have not been preserved. Because of record losses many parishes have gaps in their records, especially for the period before 1800.

Orthodox

The Russian Orthodox faith stems from the Byzantine Catholic church, which split with the Roman Catholic church in 1054. Its members in Poland are predominantly of Russian or Belorussian ethnic background. Orthodox records are often incomplete. In many cases christening records do not give names of parents. Records were kept in Old Church Slavonic or Russian.

Time period covered: Records were kept as early as the seventeenth century, but most Orthodox records from Poland begin in the late eighteenth century.

Greek Catholic (Uniate)

In 1595 Orthodox Ukrainians were formally brought into union with the Roman Catholic church. They retained their orthodox liturgy and doctrine. Records were kept in Old Church Slavonic, Polish, Latin, and Ukrainian.

Time period covered: Records were kept from the early 1600s.

Evangelical Augsburg (Lutheran) and Evangelical Reformed

Although Luther's teachings (the Augsburg Confession) had only a relatively small following among the Polish population, they did become firmly established in Poland among the German population. Those Protestants who accepted the creed of the Swiss Calvinist reformers were called Evangelical Reformed. They were predominantly Germans and were far fewer in number than the

Sources of Genealogical Value

Lutherans. Evangelical parish registers were usually written in German.

Time period covered: In Germanic areas Lutheran registers are often available from the early seventeenth century. Many parishes, however, started after 1795, when Germans colonized newly acquired Polish territory. Many of these congregations did not begin keeping records until the 1820s.

Christian Sects and Jews

Jews, Mennonites, Baptists, Brethren, and other groups, especially those that did not baptize infants, often did not keep church registers unless required by law. As a notable exception, some Mennonite congregations kept birth, baptismal, marriage, and burial registers as early as the seventeenth century. Some Jewish congregations may have kept records of circumcisions of male infants, marriage contracts, and congregational histories. In the early nineteenth century many of these groups were required by law to register with recognized Catholic or Lutheran clergy or to prepare their own civil transcripts of vital records.

Information Recorded in Church Registers

Christening registers: Infant's name, names of father and mother, names of witnesses, and christening date (most also give the child's birth date).

Circumcision registers ("mohel" books): Hebrew given names of male children, circumcision date (Hebrew calendar), father's given Hebrew name, and sometimes his surname.

Marriage registers: Names of bride and groom, date of announcements of marriage intention, date of marriage; often include ages, residences, occupations, names of parents, sometimes birthplaces; in cases of additional marriages, include names of previous partners and their death dates. Jewish marriage contracts include contractual agreements.

Burial registers: Name of the deceased, date and place of death and burial, age, place of residence; sometimes cause of death and names of survivors; occasionally date and place of birth.

Civil Registers

Accurate vital records are of great value to governments for conscription and taxation purposes. The governments of Poland required the keeping of records for civil purposes at various times. In each case the earliest responsibility for keeping such records belonged to the churches or synagogues, which were required to prepare civil transcripts (duplicate copies for civil purposes).

Because Poland was administered by three different governments, civil registration must be discussed separately for each.

Austrian Territory

Austria took possession of the southern part of Poland in 1772 and introduced civil registration in 1784. Catholic parish registers were designated as state records, and a standardized Latin columnar form was issued. The parish register thus became the civil register. A civil transcript was made for state purposes. Greek Catholic and Roman Catholic clergy were responsible for registering all vital events for all religions. In the mid 1800s non-Catholics, including Jews, were made responsible for their own vital records. The area of Kraków was affected by the civil registration of the Duchy of Warsaw (see "Russian Territory" below; see also the map on p. 3).

Time period covered: 1784 to World War I.

Russian Territory

Napoleon established the Duchy of Warsaw in 1807 and introduced universal civil registration in 1808. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw came under Russian administration after 1815, but civil registration was continued. Napoleonic-type civil registers are found in all of Russian Poland, in parts of Prussian Poznań, and in Kraków, all formerly under Napoleonic administration (see map on p. 3).

The clergy was appointed as civil registrars. Records of some religions were usually kept by the Catholic registrar until the non-Catholic community was allowed to keep its own separate civil register. After 1826 Evangelical Lutherans, Jews, and other non-Catholic religions usually maintained their own civil registers. In most cases these civil records were simply duplicates of the denominational registers. The records were kept in Polish before 1869 and usually in Russian after. The birth, marriage, and death registers usually have an index for each year.

Time period covered: 1808 to World War I.

Prussian Territory

Prussia gained a sizable portion of Poland in the Polish partitions. The settlement of the Napoleonic wars in 1815 reduced Prussia's share of Poland. Prussian law required church registration from the time of the partitions; in some cases civil transcripts were made. In accordance with this law, Mennonites, Jews, and other denominations that did not keep christening registers had their births, deaths, and marriages recorded by the Lutheran minister, although some congregations kept their own civil registers. A more universal civil registration was introduced in 1874. It was administered by civil authorities, who recorded persons of all denominations in one register. These civil records were generally kept in German, although some are in Polish.

Time period covered: Official civil registers, 1874 to World War I. Civil transcripts of church registers, late 1795 to 1874.

Information Recorded in Civil Registers

Birth records: Child's name, birth date, and sometimes christening date; names, residence, and religion of the father and mother; names and occupations of the witnesses. Austrian records often include the names of the child's grandparents.

Marriage records: Name, religion, age, residence, and sometimes birth date and birthplace of the bride and groom; marriage date; names of witnesses; sometimes the names of the parents of the bride and groom.

Death records: Name, age, residence, and religion of the deceased; dates of death and burial; names of witnesses; sometimes names of parents or spouse and surviving children.

Availability of Vital Records

The Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City has an extensive collection of vital records from throughout Poland, including many church registers and many civil records from each of the areas of Poland. Most were microfilmed at the Polish state archives and various church and state archives in Poland and Germany. Vital records after 1870 are rarely included in the library's collection, and for many localities the library has no vital records. If the Genealogical Library does not have the records you need, you may be able to obtain the information by writing to the parish or to one of the archives listed in this section.

Most church registers are still maintained by the church. Recent ones are at the parish, and older ones are at diocesan archives. Some church records are in state archives. Many parishes will answer correspondence (in Polish); church archives are often unable to handle genealogical requests but can determine whether specific records are available.

Recent civil registers and civil transcripts (those less than 100 years old or more recent than 1874 in German territory) are at local civil records offices (Urzędy stanu cywilnego). Older civil records are in state archives.

The Polish State Archival Administration has many records which have not yet been microfilmed. You may write to the state archives headquarters in Warsaw to determine whether any state archive or local civil records office has the records you need. The address is:

Naczelna Dyrekcja
Archiwów Państwowych
ul. Długa 6 skr. poczt. 1005
00–950 Warszawa
Poland

Some vital records from the former Polish territories ceded to the Soviet Union after the Second World War, especially those of the ethnic Polish population, are included in the so-called Zabużański collection. The older records of this collection are at the Main Archive of Ancient Documents (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych) in Warsaw:

Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych
ul. Długa 7
00–950 Warszawa
Poland

The more recent vital records in the Zabużański collection (those less than 110 years old) are held by the presidium of the National Workers Council (Dzielnicowa Rada Narodowa) in Warsaw:

Urząd stanu cywilnego
Przezydium Dzielnicowej Rady Narodowej
Nowy Świat 18–20
Warszawa-Śródmiescie
Poland

Many records of the former German populace, especially Evangelical records, are scattered throughout Poland and East and West Germany in various church and state archives.

The Society of Eastern German Family Researchers has a "church-book information center" which may help you determine the present location of specific vital records:

Arbeitsgemeinschaft Ostdeutscher
Familienforscher e.V.
Kirchenbuchauskunftstelle
Sperlingstr. 11a

West Germany

MILITARY RECORDS

The military records of the old Kingdom of Poland prior to the partitions include mostly account books and letters of deportment with few details on individuals, other than a few officers. These records are in the Main Archive of Ancient Documents (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych) in Warsaw. The military records of the partitioning powers—Russia, Prussia, and Austria—are of greater genealogical value. Unfortunately, the Russian and Prussian records are scattered among various archives in Poland, the Soviet Union, and East and West Germany, making them largely inaccessible to genealogical researchers. The Austrian military records have been centralized in Vienna and include records for soldiers from Galicia, which is now the southern part of Poland.

The Austrian army kept personal files on all soldiers, called muster rolls or foundation books. The pre-1869 records are arranged by regiment or unit and time period; thus they are unusable unless you can determine the military unit to which your ancestor belonged. Personal files on officers were called qualification lists. These lists are arranged alphabetically for the whole empire for the years 1828 to 1918.

Content of Austrian Records

Qualification lists: Name of officer, personal description, date and place of birth, religion, and service record, including units served in, commands, and decorations.

Muster rolls and foundation books: Name of soldier, his birthplace and year of birth, his religion, personal description, date of induction, and remarks.

Availability

Austrian military records are at the War Archives (Kriegsarchiv) in Vienna. For the most part, foundation books of Polish soldiers after 1869 have been turned over to the Polish. Records in Vienna are being microfilmed by the Genealogical Department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

OTHER SOURCES

The following are valuable sources, but because of their inaccessibility and limited scope, most researchers will not be able to use them.

TYPE OF RECORD	PERIOD COVERED	TYPE OF INFORMATION GIVEN	AVAILABILITY
1. Tombstone inscriptions.	Fourteenth Century to present.	Name of the deceased, dates of birth and death, family coats of arms.	Churches and churchyards; for the period after the Eighteenth Century, in cemeteries; for larger cities there are often grave inventories in the files of the cemetery administration.
2. Records of the administration of justice.	Second half of Fourteenth Century to present.	Registers of Castle (grodzki) and Manor (ziemski) Courts: Family names, places of origin and residence, class status, pedigrees, records of coats of arms and family properties, and order of inheritance.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych) and provincial state archives; some are published.
	End of Sixteenth Century to 1795.	Registers of royal courts: Names of holders of royal grants, often including lists of their serfs; order of inheritance of estates.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych); many registers from the end of the Sixteenth Century through the Eighteenth Century are published.
	Beginning of Nineteenth Century to present.	Other court documents: Names of persons involved in court cases, dates of birth, places of residence, names of parents and witnesses, and family relationships pertaining to order of inheritance; information varies according to the nature of the court.	Provincial state archives: recent documents are in court registers.
	1447–1794.	Copies and lists of documents published through the Royal Office: Names, heraldic names, places of origin and residence, class status, family relationships pertaining to order of inheritance as well as actual kinships, and grants of office.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw, (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych); for older registers (up to 1572) there are printed summaries (Matricularum Regni Poloniae summaria).
3. Municipal documents.	End of Fourteenth Century to Twentieth Century.	Names of citizens, places of residence, citizens' wills and inventories. Records of grants of citizenship provide places of origin and data about the family.	State archives; some of the earliest books are published.
4. Rural documents.	Fifteenth Century to Twentieth Century.	Decisions of patrimonial and rural courts on peasant affairs, biographical data of village owners and sometimes of peasants, family relationships pertaining to order of inheritance, wills, etc.	A small number are preserved in state archives; a few are published.
5. Records of ennoblements, naturalizations, and awards of coats of arms.	Sixteenth Century to Nineteenth Century.	Names of those receiving titles and awards, information about the family, pedigrees, class status, nationality and origin, and deeds of merit attributed to the family.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych); state archives and private collections. Registers of some ennoblements and naturalizations are published.
6. Records of nobility legitimization.	End of Eighteenth Century to second half of Nineteenth Century.	Names of nobles in the Russian-conquered territories of Poland who legitimized their titles; also their dates and places of birth, coats of arms, genealogical tables, pedigrees, extracts of transcripts of civil registration documents, summaries of family documents.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych); provincial state archives in Kielce and Lublin.

TYPE OF RECORD	PERIOD COVERED	TYPE OF INFORMATION GIVEN	AVAILABILITY
7. Nobility records.	1772 to end of Eighteenth Century.	Lists of names of persons who received nobility titles from the occupying governments in the course of the Polish partitions. They give the person's name, father's name, coat of arms, sometimes place of residence, and names of children if the title included descendants.	Published works. For a list of works, see Genealogia, by Włodzimierz Dworzaczek (Warsaw: Państwowe Wydawnictwo Naukowe, 1959), pp. 137–38; on film no. 1,181,597, item 1.
8. Personal registers and inventories.	Sixteenth Century to present.	Names of landholders, places of residence, particulars about the family and extent of property (at first for tax purposes); from Seventeenth to Eighteenth Century there are registers of electors of the Polish kings; from the Nineteenth Century registers were kept for statistical purposes.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych), treasury documents section; state archives; the most recent records are at the Archive of the Main Statistical Office (Archiwum Głównego Urzędu Statystycznego) in Warsaw. Some are published, especially lists of electors.
9. Land records.	Second half of Eighteenth Century to early Twentieth Century	Particulars about estate owners, descriptions of land and property for tax purposes; often include lists of all inhabitants (mainly from the territories conquered by Austria and Prussia).	State archives.
10. Armorials.	Middle of Fifteenth Century to present.	Particulars about heraldic and family names and lineages, information about certain family members, pedigrees, and descriptions of coats of arms.	The majority are published. The quality of documentation varies. A full list with criticisms is found in Genealogia, by Włodzimierz Dworzaczek (Warsaw: Państwowe Wydawnictwo Naukowe, 1959), pp. 109–32; on film no. 1,181,597, item 1. Some are available at the Genealogical Library.
11. Genealogical collections.	End of Eighteenth Century to present.	Family trees, pedigrees, summaries of family documents, family histories, diaries, civil registration transcripts, records of honorary titles, private genealogical notes.	Main Archive of Ancient Documents in Warsaw (Archiwum Główne Akt Dawnych); state provincial archives; library manuscript collections; private collections. A partial list of works is in Genealogie, by Włodzimierz Dworzaczek (Warsaw: Państwowe Wydawnictwo Naukowe, 1959), pp. 132–34 and 138–70; on film no. 1,181,597, item 1. Many unpublished works are in the private possession of surviving nobility.

Dear Frances:

So glad to hear from you again. Just got a letter from Mother also. Will answer your letter and then convey some info to you that Mother sent.

First of all, on the films you sent, where are these from? A local library? I don't recognize the numbering sequence of the films. I appreciate this information so much. It sure helps when we can share and cut down on time and expense. However, I must admit that I haven't been working on this line lately, as some films I ordered a few months ago on another line came in and I have been working with that.

Anyway, back to the films.... I don't recall where I originally got the idea, Oh, I know where now. Can't find it now, but remember seeing the name Kazsaline (sp.?) on one of the documents I have as the birth place of Carl Barfelz. Also, on his Naturalization Papers, he shows Bremen as the port of exit. (Copy enclosed.) The ships papers from Bremen were all destroyed and that's why you can't find them. Only Hamburg papers remain. Somewhere there is a list that has been put together based on some other information, (can't remember just what), but it includes most of the people who sailed from Bremen. I went through the Passenger lists from 25 Apr 1893 to 05 Jun 1893 and did not find them. This was for port of New York. So don't know what next move will be.

Now for Gale and Gwen Barfelz in California. In my Mother's letter, they all got together and she was given the prayer book which belonged to her mother. She asked me to send what info I have to them as they have been trying to get info, but are not getting any cooperation from relatives. I don't understand this, but will send what I have. This is a part from Mother's letter" Also that my grandfather must have hailed from Kazslein, Germany as they remember him telling stories about when he was a soldier in the Kazslein. The story was that he did not like the color of the Army horse so he killed it and deserted from the Kazier's army and came to America under the sponsorship of someone by the name of Gast. He is supposed to have landed on Ellis Island on May 1893." Do you know anything about this? Also Mother mentioned that she just found out that epilepsy runs in the family. Sure glad none of us had that problem.

Mother mentioned the prayer book and wants me to have it when she passes on. She said it was all in German, but there was a verse in English on the back and she conveyed that to me. Really beautiful.

Will close for now. As soon as I find something or get going on the Barfelz line again, will keep you informed. Thanks again for the info. Please keep in touch.

Love,

Barbara

Dear Fran + George — I am Iva's 3rd daughter Mary. I don't know the relationship between you + Mother but felt you should know mother died on Sept. 7, 1998. I've enclosed copies of letters to + from Nora Nielsen so you could know how Mother died. She was cremated + buried here in the Lewiston Cemetery.

Do you know who Nora + Bud Nielsen are?

Hello Mary,

We want to express our sympathy on the loss of your Mom. I could tell when I called you the last time and then you let me talk to Iva that she had failed since talking to her last. She was a special person and we [illegible] close. When we would talk [illegible] said how much your dad [illegible] with the carings [illegible]; also how beautiful it was out there [illegible]. Perhaps some day [illegible] visit us in Mich. okey?

October 1, 1998

Dear Nora and Bud,

I really appreciated your card. I never realized before how much the cards, flowers, visits, phone calls, etc. would help a person heal after the death of a loved one. Thanks again!

We have never corresponded before in the past but after getting your phone call and having a chance to talk to you a few weeks ago makes me feel like we've been friends forever. It was a good thing you called when you did as Mother had already started to go down hill but it was at a slow pace. After that time it seemed like her condition was gradually accelerating. I think she had another mini stroke while I was changing her diapers one-day. I happen to be looking her in the eyes at the time when she said 'ouch' then she looked away. She went wherever people go after a stroke. This time it affected her right side. All the previous strokes were on the left. She had always gotten better with time after the previous strokes but this time she didn't. It affected her right arm, swallowing mechanism, and speech. Her memory got worse and she finally stopped talking. Most of the time she was in "never, never land". Very seldom did she ever look me in the eyes again. I finally had to put her in a hospital bed, which was in the diningroom where she had been sleeping all along as she stopped using the stairs along time ago. I ended up sleeping in the same room with her as I was too afraid to leave her alone. The last month of her life consumed most of my time which I don't regret for a minute. It was like having a 115 lb. Baby. I never thought I could ever change diapers but as I cared for Mother a sweet peace always came over me. During that last month her eating slowed down considerably, also, until the last two days she consumed almost nothing. I can look back now and see how things fell in place to prepare her for her death. I know now that it was her time to go. Of course, I was not at all prepared nor was I aware it was her time to go.

Saturday, the 5th, her temperature started to go up so instead of waiting for it to get really high I called the doctor for a prescription. The pills brought her temperature down to normal by Sunday morning and she was looking at me and watching the dog and cats so I naturally thought she would get better. About 3 weeks earlier, we both came down with something that ended up in our lungs. We both had to be put on antibiotics. I couldn't shake it off and had to take more than one prescription so I just figured she was following the same path. About noon on Sunday she couldn't drink anything and I noticed that her fingers were blue and as I looked further I noticed her left leg was strange also. I called the doctor and told him I felt I needed to take her to the hospital because I felt she wasn't getting enough oxygen. I took her right into emergency. Her left leg was "mottled"—looked like a burgundy colored cobweb covering her entire leg. She had a blood clot in that leg. In fact, by the afternoon both of her legs were considered "gone"—there was no response in either one. That was when I realized that I wouldn't be taking her home this time. Mother had always said she didn't want to have her legs amputated like an aunt of hers. The doctor informed me that it was very unlikely she would live. I didn't want her to live like a vegetable. In the past, she had told this doctor that under no circumstances was she to be kept alive by artificial means. By 11 p.m. Mother was neurological gone so the doctor suggested we remove all IVs and the oxygen so her death could be speeded up as Mother was going at a very slow pace and the doctor said it would take days for her to die. Of course, I agreed with him, knowing Mothers wishes.

I was with her at all times. I stayed the night and decided to be there no matter how many days it would take. The idea of someone dying alone is something that has always bothered me. There was no way I would let Mother die alone. Her breathing was heavy during the night so I said a couple of prayers asking God to take her as I couldn't stand the idea of her suffering. I know that the Lord was with me as I would get promptings from the Holy Ghost to say things to her so she would know it was okay to die. In her dreams during this summer, Mother had gone on several trips with Veydon who died in 1992. She dreamed those trips of course, and had said that once he was at the house. I think that he had visited her to help prepare her for death. Before she stopped talking, she would ask me constantly each day when were we going home and where were the people who owned the house we were at. I would tell her it was our house and that we lived there. She knew she didn't belong there anymore but may not have realized that she would die soon. During Sunday night I told her it was okay to die, to look for Jesus and go to him. Still nothing was happening. Then I was prompted to tell her that it was okay to die and for her to look for Veydon and that he would take her home to Jesus. I told her that I loved her. That Tiger, her cat, loved me and would be okay so she wouldn't have to worry about her. I told her I forgave her for the things she did to me and hoped she would forgive me. This is what finally worked because at 5:28 a.m. she took a deep breath and exhaled 3 times then no more breathing. During this time I held her hand and told her I loved her. The nurse finally came in and held her other hand as the rest of her body shut down. She was dead by 5:30 or 5:31. I had a friend bring me one of her dresses (red, her favorite color) and some underwear so at 6:30 we dressed her before the mortuary came.

I have only dealt with the death of cats and dogs. This was my first experience with a human being. In a way it was very sad and in a way it was beautiful as I was able to talk to her and help her to leave this life. With the time that Mother and I had spent together, I had learned to understand why Mother acted the way she did in her life. I had learned to forgive and to love her as a Mother. I know that when I die that she and I will be friends for all eternity. Had Mother not come to live with me I would never have had this blessing. I would not change the past for anything.

I know that Veydon was waiting there so at the moment Mother left this life she would have someone there to walk her back to Heaven. I also know that she was greeted by her parents who she had no memory of and all the other relatives she never knew. The Knapps did the wrong thing by forbidding her any contact with her family. That really hurt her. Mother suffered her entire life thinking that the only thing life had to offer was being abandoned by those she loved. I know she is being healed by Jesus and all those family members and is receiving love that she never knew in this life. I am so grateful that life does not end when the body dies in this life.

I am so glad that Mother had a chance to get to know you. I hope that we can keep in touch. I'm pretty much alone in this world so a little bit of family would be appreciated. Mother didn't realize it but she had many friends here in Lewiston. I had a graveside memorial for her the next Sunday evening. She had 40 friends show up. It was right before sunset so it was so peaceful and beautiful. I know Mother was watching so that she could see she had many friends and was loved here. Ann, Barbara and I buried her ashes on Friday. They didn't want the Church or her friends there so I had a private memorial later for her friends. It was a beautiful ceremony!

Well, I hope I didn't leave anything out. I tried to explain her passing as thoroughly as possible so you could visualize it. I know Mother loved you and always appreciated hearing from you. Glad I was able to talk to you a little and hope to hear from you again.

Love,

Mary

Iva F. Cramer

LEWISTON, Utah— Iva F. Cramer, mother of E. Ann Shine-Ring, Barbara J. Shine, Mary A. Bush, and the late Bonnie J. Burrows Willey, passed away suddenly Monday, Sept. 7, 1998, at 5:30 a.m. at Logan Regional Hospital after suffering a massive stroke. Mary was at her side at the time of death.

Iva was born in Madrid, N.M., on Jan. 28, 1922, to Gustav and Margaret Dombrow. Her parents died of tuberculosis when she was still a baby.

She married Veydon G. Cramer, Nov. 27, 1960, in Fresno, Calif., where they resided for over 30 years when he died in January 1992.

Iva has been living with her daughter Mary since June 1995.

Following her wishes, no public services will be held. Cremation has been arranged by Nelson Funeral Home.

Dear Fran + George — I am Iva's 3rd daughter Mary. I don't know the relationship between you + Mother but felt you should know mother died on Sept. 7, 1998. I've enclosed copies of letters to + from Nora Nielsen so you could know how Mother died. She was cremated + buried here in the Lewiston Cemetery.

Dear Fran,

Here is a more complete translation of page 6, that refers to Pommern. We found out a lady Gale has known since 1954, can read these records. The writting on the side of page 8 says that This region is owned by the King & the child that was born is a subject of the King.

She will translate for us but her free time is limited, so pick your best 5 or 10 and send them our way.

Also, Gale's middle name is Carlson; do you think that could have been one of the great grandmother's family names? We always thought it was taken from his grandpa Carl, but that is a possibility.

Love,
Grant & Gale

January 14, 1990

I am trying to obtain information on the family and ancestors of my grandparents. The information I already have is as follows:

Carl August Barfelz (my grandfather)
born 12 Dec. 1864
Pomeran, Prussia

he was a twin -- other twin (Albert ?) died shortly after birth.
also had two brothers -- one a minister and one owned a slipper factory also had two sisters: Minna born 1872 married August Ramien Amelia born 1877 married Frederick Patzloff his parents: Carl Barfelz and Frederika Drefke or Treff his mother died in 1877 when daughter Amelia was born.

his father remarried.

married in 1888: Augusta Kunde (my grandmother)
born 15 August 1864
her parents: Gottlieb Kunde and Charlotte Knope lived in Bublitz (?)

My grandfather was in the army. While in Germany, he suffered a serious accident to his head. His wife, Augusta, had had a daughter, Minnie born, according to church records here, on 30 October 1884 (copy of confirmation record attached) and born to her before this marriage, and she had to give up the child to her brother Ernest Kunde and his wife because my grandfather was so seriously ill.

a daughter, Anna was born to them on 23 December 1889.

In May of 1893, my grandparents plus their daughter, Anna, and my grandmother's mother, Charlotte Knope Kunde along with my grandmother's brother, Ernest Kunde and his family, came to the United States from the German port of Humburg aboard the ship Polynesia. They landed in Baltimore, Maryland and came across the country to Bridgman, Michigan (Berrien County). Their passage was paid for by a man named Gast, and they worked out the passage for several years until they could buy land and work for themselves.

The only other information I have is names of places taken from some old photographs brought to this country by the Ramien family in 1921. They are:

Pollnow, Pommern, Landsberg, Konigsberg, Jerusalemer, Posen, Elbing, Braunsberg, Butow, Coslin.

Any information you can furnish or any leads you give me to gain further information on any of this family will be greatly appreciated. If there is a cost, please advise. Thank you.

Nachwort.

Hiermit übergebe ich meine vierjährige Forschungsarbeit der Öffentlichkeit in der Hoffnung, daß recht viele Volksgenossen, deren Ahnen im Bromberger Kirchspiel seßhaft waren, in diesem Werke die von ihnen gesuchten Angaben oder wenigstens gute wertvolle Anhaltspunkte für eine Weiterforschung finden werden. Ich wünschte, daß sich, durch mein Werk angeregt, noch andere Volksgenossen finden mögen, die weitere Geschlechter des östlichen Netzegaues erforschten.

Ähnliche Stammfolgen lassen sich an Hand der Register des ev. u. kath. Pfarramtes zu Bromberg von folgenden Familien aufstellen: Brunk aus Ciele, Olszewko, Przylenke und Wolfhals; Draheim aus Drzewianowo; Gutknecht aus Glinke; Hackbarth aus Ciele, Lochowo, Wolfhals und Zielonke; Kieper aus Kapuczisko; Krüger aus Ruden bei Rynarzewo; Kujat aus Biedaszkowo; Kunde aus Hakowo bei Rynarzewo, Prondtke und Zielonke; Lünser aus Ciele und Wolfhals; Marohn aus Rupienica; Masinske bzw. Maczynske (Deutsches Geschlecht) aus Stryszek; Papke und Rentz aus Drzewianowo und Gorsin; Prochnau aus Bielice und Glinke; Raschke aus Deutsch Kruschin; Ristau aus Knie und Kleinwalde; Trams aus Ciele; Ziemke aus Deutsch-Kruschin und Frondtke; u. a. m.

Zum Schluß will ich allen denen meinen verbindlichsten Dank sagen, die mir bei der Arbeit dieses Werkes hilfreich zur Seite standen. Mein besonderer Dank gilt den Beamten der kath. Pfarrkirche zu Bromberg, Herrn Superintendenten Aßmann, Herrn Diakon Gierle und Herrn Rendanten Murswieck vom ev. Pf. A. Bromberg und Herrn Pfarrer Lassahn der ev. Kirche zu Ciele, für die Erlaubnis der Kirchenbuchforschung, Herrn Oberlehrer Lang, Stadtarchiv Bromberg, für die Entzifferung alter Urkunden, Herrn Bruno Huth, Bromberg, für das Mitlesen der Korrekturbogen, Herrn Dr. Lattermann für verschiedene gute Ratschläge und für die Veröffentlichung der Arbeit im Rahmen der sippenkundlichen Schriftenreihe des Verlages der Historischen Gesellschaft in Posen.

Bromberg, im Ernting 1940.

Otto Firchau.

Da es sich beim Geschlecht Firchau in der Hauptsache um Bauern handelt, so ist auch keines dieser Sippenglieder in der Oeffentlichkeit hervorgetreten. So wie der älteste Ahn Christian Fercho um 1735 als Deutscher nach Polen kam, so ist die Haltung seiner Nachkommen bis in die jüngste polnische Zeit hinein stets deutsch gewesen und geblieben. Auf sie kann mit Recht jenes Wort ihres Posener Landsmannes, des Feldherrn Ludendorff, Anwendung finden: „Ich habe in meinem Leben nur einen Weg gekannt: den geraden Weg der Pflicht!" Sie waren fanatische Kämpfer für ihr Deutsches Volk, ihrem polnischen Wirtsvolke gegenüber aber waren sie stets loyal eingestellt. Dieserhalb soll ihnen durch die Veröffentlichung meiner Arbeit für die Zukunft ein ehernes Denkmal gesetzt sein.

Inf.-Reg., 5. Komp. zu Brbg., kaufte 1882 d. Grundstücke Prondtke Nr. 4 hinzu, lebte, nachdem er d. ganze Grundstück Nr. 2 u. 4 am 8. 7. 1908 an einen Erich Brunk aus Dtsch. Kruschin verkaufte, seit dieser Zeit bis 1910 als Rentier in Brbg., verlor durch die eintretende Inflation nach dem Weltkriege zu Polenzeiten einen Teil seines Geldes, wohnt seit dem 30. 6. 1910 bei seinem Bruder Eduard Hermann, wo er zusammen mit diesem das dortige Grundstück bewirtschaftete. Arbeit war ihm stets Lebensfreude. Für ihn kann mit Recht jenes Wort Friedrichs d. Gr. Anwendung finden: „So jemand bewirkt, daß dort zween Halme wachsen, wo zuvor nur deren einer stand, hat er mehr für das Vaterland getan als ein General, der ihm eine siegreiche Schlacht schlug". (Erich Brunk verkaufte von dem Prondtker Grundstück im Frühjahr 1919 42 Morgen Wiese und Land an Richard Schmidt in Prondtke, das restliche Land mit Gebäuden und Inventar im Herbst 1919 an den Gärtnereibesitzer Kukulka aus Brbg.; dieser verkaufte wiederum das Grundstück etwa 1927 an zwei Kongreßpolen, welche noch 1939 dortselbst wohnhaft waren; zu Pfingsten 1931/32 brannte das Wohnhaus ab und wurde seitdem nicht wieder aufgebaut; 1938/39 wohnten außer den zwei Besitzerfamilien noch einige Familien teilweise im Kartoffelkeller, im Stall, in der Waschküche, in der Geschirrkammer und in den notdürftig ausgebesserten verbliebenen Resten des abgebrannten Wohnhauses).

Fort Myers-Lee County Public Library
Genealogical Collection Research Guide
November 2, 2004

Hours of Operation

The Fort Myers-Lee County Public Library genealogy collection is open to the public Monday-Thursday 9am-9pm, Friday and Saturday 9am-6pm. No appointment is necessary to use the collection. Due to staff and time constraints, we are unable to provide comprehensive research assistance. Patrons seeking assistance beyond directional information must make an appointment with either the genealogy librarian or visit the library on a day when one of our volunteers is available.

Most of our volunteers are members of the Lee County Genealogical Society. We highly encourage all genealogical patrons to join a local genealogical society for research assistance and other genealogy-related services. The days and times when research assistance is available from volunteers will be discussed in the Research Assistance section of this handout located on page 6. Lee County also has the benefit of a second local genealogical society that contributes volunteers to the small but excellent genealogy collection housed in the Bonita Springs Library.

Our genealogy librarian is Bryan L. Mulcahy. Patrons may contact Mr. Mulcahy by telephone, letter, or e-mail. He is familiar with the contents of both the Fort Myers and Bonita Springs genealogy collections. He can also discuss the resources held by various private genealogists, as well as the resources and services offered by various genealogical and historical societies within the states of Florida and Georgia. Mr. Mulcahy also presents programs on a wide variety of topics pertaining to genealogical research. Information about our genealogical programs can be found on the Lee County Library System website at the following URL: www.lee-county.com/library under the heading "Programs—Adults" and then clicking on "Fort Myers-Lee County Library".

Patrons seeking answers to their queries or advice on how to begin their genealogical research may contact Bryan Mulcahy. To make an appointment, it is best to contact him at least three days prior to your visit. Mr. Mulcahy is a full-time staff member but has other areas of responsibility in addition to genealogy. You may contact Mr. Mulcahy in the following manner:

Collection Scope

The Fort Myers-Lee County Public Library collection consists of 5,226 titles, including books, CD-ROMS, manuscripts, microforms, and genealogical-related reports issued by various private and governmental agencies. Most of our genealogical materials are considered secondary sources and facilitate additional research in primary source records. The Fort Myers Library does not have original copies of official county, city, or state records in the collection. Indexes and secondary sources provide information on requesting official records from courthouses or agencies that have jurisdiction over public access.

Examples of materials in the Fort Myers-Lee County Library genealogical collection include the following:

1. Indexes to primary source records
    a. Land records
    b. Vital records (births, marriages, divorces, and death records)
    c. Military service and pension records
    d. Township, city, and state records (tax, voters registers, licenses)

2. Bibliographies of holdings in genealogical research institutions in the United States and Europe

3. Published family histories

4. Personal narratives of historical events

5. Selected genealogical periodicals

6. Research-oriented self-help books on specific genealogical research topics

7. Address/Fax information for contacting family associations, genealogical/historical societies, organizations, and repositories, both local and worldwide.

8. Subscription databases: AncestryPLUS, Heritage Quest, New England Historical Genealogical Register, Ancestry.com, and the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record

The secondary resources in the genealogical collection will provide researchers with the contact information necessary to access primary records and documents from the jurisdiction where their ancestors resided. The information in these sources usually provides the fee structure, forms (which can be photocopied), and necessary address, fax, or telephone information needed to process the request. We can also borrow genealogical materials from throughout the country via our Inter-Library Loan Department. This service will be discussed further on page 8 in the section titled ILL (Inter-Library Loan) Service.

The Fort Myers-Lee County Library currently has materials from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and 48 foreign countries. The bulk of the materials for the United States covers states that are east of the Mississippi River. The bulk of the foreign-country materials covers the British Isles, Canada, and Western Europe. The only primary records currently in the collection are United States Federal Census Returns for Florida (covering the period from 1830-1930) and the Florida State Census for 1885. Each branch in the Lee County Library System has a copy of our shelflist containing the titles in our genealogy collection. Patrons may also view our shelflist and study guides on the Lee County Genealogical Society website at http://www.rootsweb.com/~fllcgs.

Collection Organization

The Fort Myers Genealogy collection is organized in six sections:

1. General Collection: This section is found at the beginning of the genealogy aisle located to the right of the circulation desk. Items in the general collection include the following:

    a. Bibliographies (very useful for inter-library loan information)

    b. "How-to" books on genealogical research (general and regional)

    c. Directories that list genealogical and historical societies worldwide

    d. Family histories

    e. General U.S. records

        i. Bounty-land grants
        ii. Immigration and naturalization records
        iii. Military service records, pension applications
        iv. Land/taxation records

    f. Indexes to public and private library or depository holdings

    g. Lineage books for organizations such as the D.A.R. (Daughters Of The American Revolution) and periodical indexes for genealogical periodicals.

2. International Collection: This section contains genealogical materials that are specific to an individual country. Currently, there are materials covering 48 nations in Europe, Asia, Africa, Middle East, Australia/New Zealand, and the Caribbean. The name of each country has been written on a color-coded dot, which is attached to the spine of every book. The books are then shelved in alphabetical order by country name and shelved in Dewey Decimal order within each country. Our international materials deal with the following subjects:

    a. Governmental structure

    b. Historical events

    c. Immigration and migration within the country

d. Passenger lists of ships departing from the British Isles or Europe for America, Canada, or other destinations
e. Name and place guides
f. Surname directories for people unique to an area.

3. State Materials: Materials in this section include records that are unique to a specific state. Currently, materials for all 50 states and the District of Columbia are part of the collection. The highest concentration of materials focus on states that are east of the Mississippi River. Items in this area include the following:

   a. Bibliographical holdings for libraries or depositories within a given state
   b. Church records
   c. Collected biographies or family sketches
   d. County histories
   e. Court and judicial records, including indexes to many probate files
   f. State and county land, tax, and property records. Note: In previous eras, property did not necessarily mean ownership of any land.

Like the international collection, each state is identified by a color-coded dot on the spine of every book. The state postal abbreviation is written on each color-coded dot and the books are shelved in Dewey Decimal order within each state.

4. Microfilm/Fiche Records: These materials are located in the Electronic Resource Center, which is behind the Adult Reference Desk. Items in the Electronic Resource Center include the following:

   a. Florida Census Microfilm, 1830-1930
   For those who are not sure when a Florida county was created, consult Everton's Handy Book For Genealogists. It is shelved under the following Dewey Decimal Call Number: Genealogy Ref. 929.1 Eve. This reference provides a brief description of the record-keeping history and development of the county. It also contains contact information for the current courthouse, as well as when the county was created and the name of the "parent" county.

   b. 1870 African-Americans in the United States Federal Census. Note: access to this product is only available on the genealogy librarian's computer. Please contact Bryan Mulcahy for access.

   c. Genealogical Library Master Catalog. Note: access to this product is only available on the genealogy librarian's computer. Please contact Bryan Mulcahy for access.

i. Genealogical sources: A catalog of over 100,000 genealogical sources at libraries across the United States

5. International Genealogical Index (1978 edition)
The Fort Myers Library has the 1978 edition of the IGI on microfiche. Due to space considerations, this set has temporarily been moved to the reference work area. Please contact Bryan Mulcahy or see one of our volunteer staff for access. This set is still useful for historical purposes, but the current update is available on the Family Search website http://www.FamilySearch.org.

Note: The Family Search Program is also available at the local LDS Family History Center Library. Patrons are advised to call the LDS Family History Library (239) 275-0001 in advance because appointments are necessary to utilize the program at their facility.

Genealogical Periodicals

Many of the periodicals in the genealogy collection are state or country specific. They are shelved according to the Dewey Decimal Number within each state. Listed below are several examples of genealogy periodicals in the collection:

- Connecticut Nutmegger
- Mayflower Quarterly (Massachusetts)
- New England Historical and Genealogical Register
- New York Genealogical and Biographical Register
- North Carolina Genealogical Journal
- Tyler's Historical & Genealogical Magazine (Virginia)

Because of the lack of space, general "how-to" or basic history-oriented periodicals are not shelved in the collection; however, the genealogy librarian can access citation information via www.ancestry.com. This resource allows you to obtain photocopies of articles pertaining to your area of research. The collection also includes various print sources that contain subject references to periodicals. These may be ordered via inter-library loan. The periodicals we do have in our genealogy collection are those consisting of actual genealogical records. As a reminder, periodicals that are specific to a state are shelved with the "State Materials".

Research Assistance

For patrons needing research assistance, the Fort Myers-Lee County Public Library has one librarian and seven part-time volunteers who are experienced genealogists. Our volunteers currently work on Monday from 9am - 4pm; Wednesday 10am-noon; Thursday 11:30-4:30 (November through May, volunteer from Western Reserve Genealogical Library); and Friday 9am-noon. If the information you are seeking is not in the collection, you can inquire about organizations that have access to the records you need. The local genealogical societies (listed on page 9) will provide assistance to their members who seek specialized genealogical research assistance at the library (by appointment).

The Fort Myers Library accepts research queries and photocopy requests from patrons by telephone, fax, or e-mail. There is no charge for these services, but in order to provide maximum assistance in answering queries, or to refer you to an agency that can help, you must provide the following information:

1. Full name of the ancestor
2. County of residence or where the event took place
3. Years when the family resided in the given locality
4. Exact dates when researching events in their lives

If you need detailed assistance, two options are available:

1. Call the Fort Myers Library genealogy librarian for an appointment
2. Contact the local Lee County Genealogical Society (239) 549-9625 or Wilma Harvard with the Bonita Springs Genealogy Club (239) 992-0073

Both genealogy organizations have members who are willing to assist patrons with their research. Many beginning genealogists find the best assistance by joining one or both societies. If you would like to send your genealogical inquiry to the Fort Myers Library, the mailing address is:

Research Tips For Patrons

1. General "How-To" Materials:
   If you are just beginning your research, you may want to check out a general "how-to" genealogy book. A small collection of genealogy books is located in the 929.1 section of Adult Nonfiction. These books are part of the circulating collection and are available for check out. If the Ft. Myers is not the branch library you normally use, you may request these items from any branch, and they will be sent via inter-department mail to a branch library that is convenient for you.

2. Examine all books concerning the given country, state, or subject area you are researching
   Most of the genealogy materials have been catalogued and are included in the library computer catalog. A separate shelf list containing all of the Fort Myers Library genealogy materials is available at the Adult Reference Desk or online at www.rootsweb.com/~fllcgs/.

3. Join One Or More Of The Local Genealogical Societies
Lee County has two genealogical societies.

   a. The Lee County Genealogical Society meets the third Thursday of each month at Wesley United Methodist Church, 4141 DeLeon Street, in Fort Myers. They offer assistance for beginners, special ethnic-interest groups, and other related research assistance. Membership brochures are located along the window wall in the genealogy collection where the information sheet binders are located.

   b. The Bonita Springs Genealogical Club meets on the second Thursday of each month at the Bonita Springs Library. The contact person for this group is Wilma Harvard (239) 992-0073.

4. Consult Periodicals: Genealogical periodicals are not just collections of stories or magazine articles that you find in general reading matter. Many genealogical periodicals such as New England Historical Genealogical Society Quarterly, New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, and the Connecticut Nutmegger contain vast amounts of research pertaining to vital statistics, probate records, family histories, land records, military and pension records, church and bible records, as well as queries and book reviews. Queries can be worth their weight in gold to researchers.

5. Information Sheets: There are over 100 genealogical information sheets covering a variety of subjects to assist researchers who do not have time to read an entire book. These information sheets are found in binders along the back wall by the windows in the genealogy area and on the genealogy shelving cart located at the front of the genealogy area. A subject listing of information sheet topics is posted beside the binders. Patrons may photocopy these sheets at a cost of $.10 per page. A limited number of basic beginners sheets are available for free and are located in the literature racks at the front of the genealogy area.

ILL (Inter-library Loan) Service

Many of our genealogical books contain references to more detailed primary and secondary sources. These items may not be available in the Lee County Library System and may only be available at university or genealogy libraries. The Lee County Library System participates in the nation-wide resource-lending program. This makes it possible for researchers to obtain either photocopies or books from other institutions. There is no charge for this service, but because many of the ILL materials come from private or academic libraries, there is usually a 2-6 week waiting period. Please be advised that we cannot borrow National Archives microfilm. The local Family History Library branch of the LDS (Mormon Church) is your best source to order census or immigration/ship passenger list microfilm.

When requesting photocopies from genealogical periodicals, the lending library must have the exact citation. This is emphasized because many institutional libraries will not process requests that do not have the page number or volume number. ILL can do a subject search of book titles on a subject, but not for periodical titles and subjects. We have several issues of the Genealogical Periodical Index that might assist you in this regard. Our genealogy librarian or one of our volunteers may be able to assist you in looking for periodical articles via Heritage Quest, the New York Genealogical & Biographical Record, and the New England Historical Genealogical Register online database.

On a case-by-case basis, some of the genealogical reference materials from the Fort Myers Library may be lent to various branches in the Lee County Library System for "in-house" use only on a case-by-case basis. "In-House" use is limited to 5-7 days and is restricted due to the demand for use. Lending of these materials is done at the discretion of the genealogy librarian and photocopies may be furnished in lieu of the book.

The Fort Myers Library is unable to borrow census microfilm for the state or federal census. The same applies to microfilm records from the National Archives. For microfilm, it is best to contact one of the following organizations:

1. L.D.S. Family History Center Library:
   3105 Broadway, Fort Myers, Florida 33901. Hours: Monday through Friday 9am - 4pm and Saturday 9am - 1pm. Telephone (239) 275-0001.

2. Bonita Springs Genealogy Club:
   Meetings are held on the 2nd Thursday of each month at the Bonita Springs Library. Meeting times can vary, but are usually held from 1pm – 3pm. Contact person is Wilma Harvard (239) 992-0073. The club will order microfilm for its members.

3. Charlotte County Genealogical Society:
   Meetings are held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month at St. James Episcopal Church, 1375 Viscaya Drive, Port Charlotte, FL 33952. Contact person is Jan Masteryanni (941) 625-3032. The society will order microfilm for its members.

4. Collier County Genealogical Society:
   Meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month at St John's Episcopal Church, Sugden Hall, 500 Park Shore Drive, Naples, FL 34103. Contact person is Helen Eckhardt (239) 348-3535. The society will order microfilm for its members.

5. National Archives Microfilm Rental Program:
   See the brochure by this name for information and fees.

Family Search Genealogy Program

The Fort Myers Library offers the Family Search Program for genealogy research via the Internet at the following website http:/www.familysearch.org . Patrons needing assistance in using this site are advised to come during the times one of our genealogy volunteers are on duty or contact our genealogy librarian for a training session.

This program consists of five parts:

1. Ancestral File
   This file contains over 130 million names arranged in family groups and pedigrees. This is considered initial "raw data" that people in the beginning stages of research have entered into the system. Anyone using this information should be aware that much of it still needs to be verified.

2. IGI (International Genealogical Index)
   This file contains approximately 300 million names and individual records that have been extracted from vital records, copied from governmental bodies, or submitted by genealogical researchers. The IGI combines all names within each geographical region into two alphabetical lists: Individual Names and Marriages. It allows for three types of searches: Individual, Marriage, and Parent. It also groups similar given names and similar surnames under standardized spellings. Included are the individual call numbers for sources cited in the Family History Library.

3. Social Security Death Index
   This file contains information about persons whose deaths were reported to the Social Security Administration from 1937 through 2001, with the majority of death records from 1962 and later. It provides birth and death dates, identifies the person's last place of residence, identifies the place where death benefits were sent, names the state where the person lived when issued a social security number, and gives each person's social security number. To be included in this index, the person must have paid into Social Security and must be deceased. No information on living individuals can be found on this index.

   Note: For records prior to 1962, researchers must contact the Social Security Administration Office in Maryland and request a MANUAL search of the non-computerized records. Failure to do so will normally result in the search only being done on post-1962 computerized records.

4. Military Death Index
   This file contains the names of over 100,000 U.S. servicemen and women who died during the Korean and Vietnam Wars. It contains birth and death dates, the person's residence, place of death, rank, and serial number. For Vietnam War fatalities, it also provides religious affiliation, marital status, race, and a reference number for each soldier listed at the Vietnam War Memorial.

5. Family History Library Catalog
   This file describes over 3 million books, microfilms, microfiche, maps, manuscripts, and other miscellaneous materials held by the Family History Library in Salt Lake City. You can search by geographic locality, subject, surname, or film number. Call numbers are included to facilitate requests by researchers using the Family History Center Library. It also lists the Family History Center libraries where the actual film is located if you are planning a trip to a specific area.
